Imperial River Company takes its name from the historic Imperial Stock Ranch, located 20 miles east of Maupin. Founded in 1871, the Imperial Stock Ranch grew from a modest 160 acre homestead claim into an empire stretching over 100 miles. Its operations included grain, hay, cattle and tens of thousands of sheep. Much has changed over the last hundred years, yet today the ranch maintains production in these original areas. It is a National Historic District, recognized for sustainable production practices. Today, the ranch raises black angus cattle, Columbia sheep, soft white wheat, alfalfa hay and yarn. With the goals of preserving a quality, rural lifestyle, and sharing a bit of that experience with visitors, our family hopes you will enjoy your time with us.
